We apprehend there is some design at the bottom by the Governor's informant, whose statements are false and distorted in every particular, to all forth such a document as this directed to our Sheriff. They are wholly sensational. A slander upon Mr. Ramsey and our community, dished up a la Fletcher. It is hard indeed that a paper should be called upon to defend a civilized and enlightened people against such absurd and outrageous charges. Here are the facts in the case as they can be proved by the mouths of a thousand witnesses. Read and see for yourselves how we are misrepresented at Washington and through the Northern press, and that expressly for political purposes.
